Bidvest International Logistics Internship 2024/2025 YES Programme

Description

Bidvest International Logistics is offering an exciting opportunity for unemployed South African youth to participate in the Youth Employment Services (YES) Programme for 2024/2025. This initiative, developed in collaboration with the government, aims to address youth unemployment by providing valuable work experience and skills development in the logistics sector.

The Bidvest International Logistics YES Programme provides participants with both theoretical and practical training within the logistics industry. This comprehensive initiative includes 25 modules, which must be completed over a period of 12 months. The programme is designed to equip participants with essential industry knowledge, enhance their employability, and provide hands-on experience in logistics operations, including transport, warehousing, and customs brokerage services.

Bidvest International Logistics, in partnership with EMO Trans, operates a global network with over 250 offices in more than 120 countries. With over a century of experience in supply chain optimisation, Bidvest is a leading name in logistics and transport, offering unparalleled opportunities for career growth and development.
