City Of Johannesburg Internship Programme 2024/2025 For Call Centre

Description

The City of Johannesburg (CoJ) Group Finance Department invites applications for its Call Centre Internship Programme for the 2024/2025 period. This initiative aims to provide suitably qualified and unemployed graduates with practical experience in a professional setting, enhancing their skills in customer service and revenue management.

The internship spans a period of up to eighteen months, during which interns will work within the Finance Department's Revenue Shared Services Centre. The program is designed to offer hands-on experience in managing customer queries and supporting the financial operations of the City of Johannesburg.

Responsibilities

Interns are expected to:

- Adhere to standard operational procedures for logging revenue-related queries and ensure they are processed by the relevant department.
- Maintain and update electronic information and records.
- Comply with the City of Johannesburg's Performance Management Policy.
- Foster strong customer and interdepartmental relationships to ensure effective service delivery.
- Utilize operational resources efficiently and in compliance with the City's legislative framework and policies.

Qualifications

Candidates must:

- Possess a Grade 12 certificate along with a relevant tertiary qualification at NQF level 6 or higher, or be currently enrolled in such a program.
- Demonstrate competencies in:
- · Microsoft Office applications.
- Problem-solving and time management.
- Listening and communication, both verbal and written.
- · Interpersonal interactions.
- Understanding of billing concepts and functions, retention, recall, and attention to detail.

Job Benefits

The internship offers:

- A monthly stipend of R9,531.54.
- Opportunities to develop practical skills in a professional finance environment
- Experience in managing and resolving customer queries effectively.
- Exposure to the operations of a large municipal finance department.
