Gauteng Department Of Economic Development (GDED) Internship Programme 2024/2025 For Human Capital

Description

The Gauteng Department of Economic Development is offering an enriching Human Capital Internship Programme for the academic years 2024/2025. This program is designed to provide aspiring professionals with a comprehensive understanding of various facets related to human capital management in a governmental context.

The Human Capital Internship Programme aims to equip participants with valuable skills and practical experience in the economic development sector. Interns will engage in a structured learning environment that promotes personal growth and professional development, preparing them for future roles in their chosen fields.

Responsibilities

Interns will be tasked with acquiring practical experience through active involvement in departmental projects and initiatives. Responsibilities will include assisting in the implementation of human capital strategies, participating in training and development sessions, and contributing to productivity management efforts. Interns will also support the organization in enhancing its operational efficiency and will have the opportunity to engage in labor and employee relations activities.

Qualifications

Applicants must possess one of the following qualifications:

- National Diploma (NQF 6) or Bachelor's Degree (NQF 7) in Human Resource Management, Industrial Psychology, Training and Development, Work-study, Management Services, Productivity Management, Operations Management, Organisation and Industrial Psychology, or Labour Relations/Employee Relations.
- Sports Science or Exercise Diploma (NQF 5).
- Higher Certificate (NQF 4) in Records Management and Archives.

Job Benefits

Participants in the internship program will gain comprehensive exposure to the public sector's economic development functions, enhancing their employability and career prospects. The program offers a unique opportunity to work alongside experienced professionals, fostering a deeper understanding of human capital dynamics within a governmental framework.

How To Apply?

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit their applications, including a detailed curriculum vitae and copies of relevant qualifications, to the Gauteng Department of Economic Development's recruitment office. Further application instructions and deadlines will be announced on the department's official website.
